ACADEMIE DE L'ORCHESTRE DE PARIS

STRING AUDITIONS FROM FEBRUARY 2018 ONWARDS

An intensive six month programme of professional orchestral experience

Orchestre de Paris, principal resident orchestra

at the Philharmonie de Paris

Musical Director: Daniel HARDING

Currently celebrating its 50th anniversary, the Orchestre de Paris continues to develop its place on international concert platforms and is presenting a new opportunity for young string players worldwide looking to gain serious experience in an orchestral environment. In January 2019 the new Academy of the Orchestre de Paris is offering an innovative programme of practice performance and tutoring, opening new doors for tomorrow's orchestral musician.

ACADEMIE: JANUARY - JUNE 2019

- 25 concerts at the Philharmonie de Paris
- Chamber music concerts
- Preparation of concert programmes with the principals of the Orchestre de Paris
- Coaching by orchestral members
- International tours
- Participation in outreach activities
- Workshops on time management, relaxation, posture and more
- Opportunity to learn about the administrative roles in an orchestra
- Salary: rank and file musician (category 4.0) short term contract

The Academy participants will gain orchestral experience by sharing desks with the orchestra members and will benefit from individual coaching from both principals and members of the sections concerned.

In addition to the symphonic concerts, the 5 selected participants will take part in education and outreach activities of the Orchestre de Paris (school workshops, meet-the-public events, music in hospitals...)

Half-day sessions providing an opportunity to understand the administrative working of a top level professional orchestra and its choir, as well as workshops on subjects such as time management and relaxation methods, are also part of the programme.
