Jeunesses Musicales Belgrade
Serbia

Who are we?

Jeunesses Musicales Belgrade has existed since 1954. Since 1962 is a member of Jeunesses Musicales International – JMI, with headquarter in Brussels, and since 1974, is a member of the World Federation of International Musical Competitions – WFIMC, located in Geneva.

What we do?

Some of the mainstreams of our organization are support and promotion of the young musicians, education, introduction of all music genres to young people, encouragement of musical and cultural creativity of the youth and raising the cultural level of the communities where we operate through the variety of projects (Summer Festival Kalemegdan's Dusks, International Jeunesses Musicales Competition Belgrade – IJMC Belgrade, Summer Sacral Academy in Studenica – choral workshops, concerts for children and youth – Musical Saturdays, concerts in schools, exchange of artists in the country and abroad, workshops, round tables...)

JMB connects

Jeunesses Musicales exists for children and youth to permanently sustain them with music, but with other ranges of art as well. JMB is a network of music artists who enthusiastically take part in our programs. The artists of the highest quality and artistic achievements participate in the existing work of JMB.

Everyone is welcome to join JMB and become a member of our music artists network.

IJMC Belgrade

Every year since 1971 the International Jeunesses Musicales Competition Belgrade is held annually in Belgrade –

International Jeunesses Musicales Competition Belgrade – IJMC Belgrade. The Competition is assigned for young music artists ready to start their professional career, but also to evaluate their values and level of the creativity and techniques in front of the authoritative, international jury.

The Competition has so far been held 48 times in different solo and chamber disciplines and over 2000 soloists and more than 200 chamber ensembles participated. The participants came from all continents and from over 70 countries of the world.

IJMC Belgrade

Competition is among the biggest world music competitions, annually held in March in the Kolarac Endowment and the founder is Assembly of the city of Belgrade.
