

Eykamp String Quartet/EPO Concertmaster - Violin 1

Responsibilities include serving as Violinist in the Eykamp String Quartet and Concertmaster in the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra; approximately 165 services with the EPO (includes all orchestra, outreach, and quartet services). Participate in performances and educational activities as Artists-in-Residence at the University of Evansville, including recitals, master classes, and coachings.

Qualifications include performance at a very high level of artistic accomplishment including solo, chamber, and orchestral experience; a dedicated commitment to playing in a full-time string quartet; commitment to education and outreach. A bachelor's degree is required.

The Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra and the University of Evansville collaborate fully in the selection and employment of Quartet personnel.

The University of Evansville is an independent, selective admissions university recognized for excellence in its core liberal arts and sciences curriculum and professional programs. Enrollment is 2,000+. The Music Conservatory currently has 65 undergraduate music majors. Degree programs include Music Education, Music Therapy, Music Management, Performance, and General Studies (Bachelor of Science). Instruction on every orchestral instrument, voice, keyboard, and guitar is provided by 8 full-time and 16 part-time instructors.

Led by Music Director, Roger Kalia, the Evansville Philharmonic presents a subscription series of five Classics and five Pops programs each season. In addition, the EPO performs a set of Young People's Concerts, Messiah, and outreach concerts each season. The organization includes two Youth Orchestras and a 100+ voice adult chorus.

Compensation is approximately $33,000 (combined). This position is eligible for health insurance benefits.

The starting date is August 21, 2023. Auditions are scheduled for July 18-19, 2023, by invitation. The audition will include both orchestral excerpts and quartet playing. Finalists will have a teaching round and will be interviewed. If the advertised position is won by a member of the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra, the resulting vacancy may be offered to the next qualified applicant.

Review of applications will begin immediately (application deadline is Tuesday, June 27, 2023). Please send letter of application, resume including at least 3 references and transcripts to: Dr. Alanna Keenan (ak215@evansville.edu). Electronic submission of materials is preferred.

Requests for information or questions may be sent to Dr. Alanna Keenan, UE Music Conservatory, Eykamp String Quartet Search Committee, University of Evansville, Evansville, IN, 47722, ak215@evansville.edu or by calling (812) 488-2419. The University of Evansville is an equal opportunity affirmative action employer strongly committed to educational excellence through diversity.