About Prof. Hans Peter Ochsenhofer

- Mr. Ochsenhofer was born on 13 January 1948 in Graz (Austria).

- He received his first musical education in Oberschützen (part of the University of Music in Graz – violin, trumpet). Then he studied violin with Prof. Franz Samohyl at the University of Music in Vienna.
- 1971 violinist in the VIENNA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
- 1975 changing to the viola section within the orchestra (2nd solo-viol)
- 1977 graduated with honours (viola) with Prof. Siegfried Führlinger
- 1977 successful audition for the orchestra of the VIENNA STATE OPERA
- 1978 leader of the viola-section
- 1980 member of the VIENNA PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA
- He was also a member of the WIENER VIRTUOSEN 1989-1999.
- Since 1999 he is member of the VIENNA STRING QUARTETT.
- Many tours, TV-shows as well as CD-recordings with these ensembles made him well known in Europe and overseas.
- 1983 he was invited to teach as professor at the Conservatory of Vienna.
- 1993 he became o. Univ. Prof. for viola at the University of Music in Vienna.
- Many of his students succeeded in auditions for many renowned orchestras like the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra (10 players), Vienna Symphony (7 players and solo viola), RSO (2) , NTO (5), Staatskapelle Dresden (1), Mozarteum Orchestra, Wiener Volksoper, Bruckner Orchester Linz (2 solo violas), Kopenhagen Radio, Oslo philharmonic, etc.
- Encouraged by the acclaim of well known conductors as Michael Tilson Thomas he worked as a conductor and orchestra educator in USA (American Orchestra Institut, New World Symphony Orchestra), in Japan PMF (founded by Leonard Bernstein), in Austria at the Attergau Institute, Gustav Mahler Orchestra, etc.
